

The abstract has to be given in German and English. It should be between half a page and one page in length. It should cover in a readable and comprehensive style the context of the thesis, the problem setting, the objectives, and the methods developed in this thesis as well as key insights and results.